At just under four-inches tall, the Cloudious9 Atomic9 delivers an ultracompact, yet powerful vaping experience. Built for on-the-go consumption, this pocket-sized vaporizer is constructed from durable anodized aluminum. The Atomic9 features single-button operation and a rapid 30-second heat-up time; the 900mAh lithium-ion battery enables you to choose between six temperatures that range from 356 °F to 428 °F.

The patent-pending dual layer technology delivers elite convection heating and exceptional flavor with every draw. The Atomic9's magnetic mouthpiece is equipped with a detachable rapid vapor cooling chamber which minimizes the airpath while cooling your vapor to perfection. The retractable loading shovel lets you seamlessly load and pack dry herb.
